

CS4B Testimonial

Liquidity aims to be the leading independent invoice financier in the UK. Being great at what we do is all about delivery which is increasingly dependent on the quality and efficiency of our information systems so our clients can access our systems 24/7 quickly and with the minimum of fuss.

We have found that working with CS4B exactly mirrors what we aim to provide which is a supportive and effective service. We find them proactive in suggesting new solutions whilst at the same time not being intrusive.

If there are any systems issues they frequently point them out to us, often having already solved the problem before we are aware of it!

They have taken the time and trouble to understand what makes our business tick and so they can talk our language and anticipate our needs.

All in all we consider them to be a true business partner.
